COMMUNION STATEMENT ~ The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth His death until He comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the Sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor or an Elder. For further study, see Matt. 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 11:17-34.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Exodus 34:29-35

When Moses came down from Mount Sinai, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand as he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. Aaron and all the people of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses talked with them. Afterward all the people of Israel came near, and he commanded them all that the LORD had spoken with him in Mount Sinai. And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face.

Whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he would remove the veil, until he came out. And when he came out and told the people of Israel what he was commanded, the people of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face was shining. And Moses would put the veil over his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

My heart overflows with a pleasing theme; I address my verses | to the king;*

Gird your sword on your thigh, O | mighty one,*

Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's | enemies;*
the peoples fall | under you.

Your throne, O God, is forever and | ever.*

The scepter of your kingdom is a scepter of up- | rightness;

You have loved righteousness and hated | wickedness.*

Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your com- | panions;

your robes are all fragrant with myrrh and aloes and | cassia.*

From ivory palaces stringed instruments | make you glad;

Hear, O daughter, and consider, and in- | cline your ear:*

EPISTLE

2 Corinthians 3:12-4:6

Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face so that the Israelites might not gaze at the outcome of what was being brought to an end. But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.

Therefore, having this ministry by the mercy of God, we do not lose heart. But we have renounced disgraceful, underhanded ways. We refuse to practice cunning or to tamper with God's word, but by the open statement of the truth we would commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God. And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 9:2-9

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the 9th chapter.

C Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became radiant, intensely white, as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. And Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah." For he did not know what to say, for they were terrified. And a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son; listen to him." And suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them but Jesus only.

And as they were coming down the mountain, he charged them to tell no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life \dagger of the world to come. Amen.

*O Light, from Which the light hast birth,
 Jesus, redeemer of the earth,
 Thy suppliant flock, vouchsafe to spare,
 Nor spurn their gift of praise and prayer.*

*Thou who, for lost transgressors' sake,
 Didst not disdain our flesh to take,
 O grant that living members we
 Of that Thy Body blest may be.*

*Beyond the sun Thine aspect bright;
 Thy raiment as the snowdrift white;
 To chosen witnesses made known,
 Thy Godhead on the mount was shown.*

*Seers, from their children's eyes concealed,
 To Thy disciples stood revealed;
 On each Thou didst Thy power bestow
 Thee as eternal God to know.*

*The Father, from His heavenly throne,
 Proclaimed Thee His Anointed Son,
 And we, with faithful hearts, no less,
 Thee, King of glory, aye confess.*

*May we Thy splendor day by day
 In innocence of life display;
 And thus to joys beyond the skies
 In holy converse heavenward rise.*

*Eternal God, of kings the King,
 To Thee our hymns of praise we bring:
 Who, Threefold Deity, alone
 Dost reign to endless ages one.*

LWML Inasmuch Project “Warm the feet.”

Beginning this Sunday and into March, LWML asks your assistance in warming the feet of those who walk most of their days through our community because they have no home. Warm the Feet is our campaign to gather new pairs of socks, preferably black, to be given to those who endure the weather of our community without much shelter. Please consider buying a pair of black socks, preferably of high quality (wool or thermal is best, but lighter will do, too). We ask for black socks as black will hide dirt better. These will be placed in bags with other daily necessities and distributed later this spring. Monetary donations accepted. Thank you for your support of LWML Inasmuch projects.
