COMMUNION STATEMENT ~ The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth His death until He comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the Sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor or an Elder. For further study, see Matt. 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 11:17-34.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!"

And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. And I said: “Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!”

Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a burning coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar. And he touched my mouth and said: “Behold, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away, and your sin atoned for.”

And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” Then I said, “Here am I! Send me.”

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE

Acts 2:14a, 22-36

Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words.

“Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know—this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. God raised him up, loosing the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. For David says concerning him, “I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand that I may not be shaken; therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; my flesh also will dwell in hope. For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’

“Brothers, I may say to you with confidence about the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants on his throne, he foresaw and spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that he was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses. Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this that you yourselves are seeing and hearing. For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says, “The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool.’ Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

[P] The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 3rd chapter.

Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. This man came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do unless God is with him.” Jesus answered him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.” Nicodemus said to him, “How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb and be born?” Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, ‘You must be born again.’ The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.”

Nicodemus said to him, “How can these things be?” Jesus answered him, “Are you the teacher of Israel and yet you do not understand these things? Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak of what we know, and bear witness to what we have seen, but you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except he who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.”

[P] This is the Gospel of the Lord.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of

His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life ✝ of the world to come. Amen.

CHOIR: "O Blessed Holy Trinity"

Choral settings by S. Drummond Wolff

*O blessed Holy Trinity
Divine, eternal Unity,
God Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Be Thou this day my Guide and Host.*

*My soul and body keep from harm,
O'er all I have extend Thine arm,
That Satan may not cause distress
Nor bring me shame and wretchedness.*

*The Father's love shield me this day,
The Son's pure wisdom cheer my way,
The Holy Spirit's light divine
Illumine my heart's benighted shrine.*

*My Maker, strengthen Thou my heart,
O my Redeemer, help impart,
Blest Comforter, keep at my side
That faith and love in me abide.*

*Lord, bless and keep Thou me as Thine;
Lord, make Thy face upon me shine;
Lord, lift Thy countenance on me
And give me peace, sweet peace, from Thee.*

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

☐ Glory be to You, O Lord Most High, holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts; heaven and earth are full of Your glory! O most Holy Trinity, we thank You for the creation and continual preservation and direction of heaven and earth, angels and men, and all things. We bless You for revealing Yourself by Your holy Word to the children of men as one eternal God in Three Persons, co-equal in majesty, power, and glory; and for establishing a Church for all generations upon the foundation of the Gospel. We worship You in true faith and by our adoration and confession separate ourselves from all who do not acknowledge You as the only true and living God.

O God the Father everlasting, who from eternity did beget the Son, and, having ordained Him to be the Mediator and Redeemer of all men, did accomplish and make known to us through Him the wonderful counsel of our salvation, we humbly implore You to have mercy upon us and to forgive us all our sins. Lift up the light of Your face upon us, and we shall be healed. May it please You, moreover, to gather a holy Christian Church from all nations and tongues, and to preserve also among us a holy people, that Your name may be worshiped and glorified to the ends of the earth. We commend to Your merciful providence all those in authority and pray You to enable them so to rule and govern that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. And, as we can do nothing without You, grant us Your grace that we may always in singleness of heart do those things that please You, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

O God the everlasting Son, who is the express image of Your heavenly Father and the brightness of His glory, who of Your unspeakable love did in the fullness of time assume our nature and make an atonement for all our sins, we praise and glorify You, and humbly acknowledge our inability ever worthily to thank You for all Your goodness. Have mercy upon us, O Lord; and with Your most precious blood cleanse us from all sin. Preserve to us Your holy Word and the blessed Sacraments. Defend us from error and false doctrine. Bring to naught the devices of the enemies of Your Word, that they may have no power over us to mislead us into the paths of sin and destruction. Protect the whole Christian Church on earth; give to us and all its members faith, patience, and comfort in all our trials and distresses; and conduct us safely through this vale of sorrow to the kingdom of eternal glory.

O God the Holy Spirit, who is sent from the Father and the Son into our hearts to renew them, continually enlighten us and ever enkindle the true and saving faith in us. Direct and lead us evermore into Your truth, and keep us steadfast amid all the assaults and temptations of the world, even to the end.

O most merciful and ever faithful God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, most holy and ever blessed Trinity, grant us grace to abide in the true Christian faith and to lead a godly life, that after the troubles of this mortal state we may depart in peace, and, in the blessed company and fellowship of the holy angels and of the elect, see You face to face, and love and praise and magnify and worship You, world without end.

C Amen

June 9 • Prov. 8:1–21 John 12:36b–50

June 10 • Proverbs 8:22–36; John 13:1–20

June 11 • Proverbs 9:1–18; John 13:21–38

June 12 • Proverbs 10:1–23; John 14:1–17

Ushers Needed: As we continue to return to normal after Covid 19, we are increasingly in need of more people to volunteer as ushers to help the flow of our services. Beginning in June we will resume our traditional practice of celebrating the Lord's Supper by gathering around the altar of the Lord and with this comes the need for a bit more help. Please consider giving a little of your time to help.

RUNNING TO LEXINGTON —

Bring your children to the LWML convention in Lexington, Kentucky, June 24–27, 2021, as we celebrate “Running the Race ... Looking to Jesus.” The “King’s Kids Clubhouse” will have age-related activities and will be open Friday and Saturday for children whose parent(s) are attending the convention. Come and rejoice in your family’s salvation, remembering the convention theme “Running the Race ... Looking to Jesus.”

St. John's Church-Worker Scholarship Corner

And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here I am! Send me" (Isaiah 6:8 ESV).

St. John's members can assist future church workers by contributing to the St. John's Church Worker Scholarship Fund. This year up to $1250 of contributions made will be matched by a generous benefactor. Applications for scholarships for the 2021-2022 academic year are in process and due to the committee by August 15, 2021. Scholarships will be awarded following that date. Available funds will be divided equally between those who apply. Anyone contributing to the St. John's Church Worker Scholarship Fund should write in the memo of their check prior to donating "Church Worker Scholarship Fund."

Presently St. John's has three enrolled members. Ryan Groh recently graduated from Concordia University-Seward as a pre-seminary student majoring in psychology. He will begin his seminary studies this fall at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana. Brian Payne, also a student at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, will venture to Cheyenne, Wyoming, to begin his vicarage. With him will be Keah Payne, enrolled at Concordia Theological University, Fort Wayne, to earn the Master of Arts in Deaconess Studies.

To qualify for an annual scholarship the member must presently be, or plan to be, a full-time student enrolled in Concordia University or Concordia Theological Seminary preparing for full-time church work. Those interested in receiving a scholarship must complete the Scholarship Committee's application, provide to the committee a copy of their letter of intent to enroll in a church worker program, and provide the committee a letter of acceptance from the school they will be attending. Members may apply annually by providing to the committee proof of continued enrollment in good standing at their campus.

Any questions may be directed to the following members of the committee: Al Cardwell, Anna Johnson, Karen Karner, and Debbie McBee.

MAY INASMUCH PROJECT

LWML asks St. John's congregation to consider helping others see by donating gently used glasses for Mission Opportunities Short Term (MOST). Eye glass clinics in developing nations help to bring clearer sight to those who unable to obtain adequate vision care while sharing the Gospel message of Jesus and salvation through Him. Gently used adult-sized glasses, child-sized glasses, over-the-counter reading glasses and non-prescription sunglasses will be accepted. Please search your homes to see what you can find to contribute to our collection basket in the narthex. All donations will be taken to the LWML Convention, Lexington, Kentucky, in June. Thank you for your continued support of Inasmuch projects.

LWML will meet Tuesday, June 1, at 7 pm in Blanchard Hall. All women of the congregation are welcome to join for Bible study and a short business meeting. On the agenda: elections and a possible mission project this summer. Updates on how anyone can view the upcoming Lexington convention will be explained. Come and enjoy an evening of fellowship with your sisters in Christ.
