COMMUNION STATEMENT ~ The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth His death until He comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the Sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor or an Elder. For further study, see Matt. 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 11:17-34.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

[P] In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

[C] Amen.

[P] Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

[P] Our help is in the name of the Lord,

[C] who made heaven and earth.

[P] I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

[C] and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

[P] O almighty God, merciful Father,

[C] I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

[P] Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

[C] Amen.

The LORD is the strength of his | people;*
he is the saving refuge of his a- | nointed.
Oh, save your people and bless your | heritage!*
Be their shepherd and carry them for- | ever.
To you, O LORD, I call; my rock, be not | deaf to me,*

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Job 38:1-11

Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said: “Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Dress for action like a man; I will question you, and you make it known to me.

“Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone, when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

“Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb, when I made clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling band, and prescribed limits for it and set bars and doors, and said, ‘Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stayed’?”

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL

Psalms 107:23-43

Some went down to the | sea in ships,*
doing business on the great | waters;
they saw the deeds | of the LORD,*

his wondrous works | in the deep.
For he commanded and raised the | stormy wind,*
which lifted up the waves | of the sea.
They mounted up to heaven; they went down | to the depths;*
their courage melted away in their | evil plight;
they reeled and staggered like | drunken men*
and were at their | wits' end.
Then they cried to the LORD in their | trouble,*
and he delivered them from | their distress.
He made the | storm be still,*
and the waves of the | sea were hushed.
Then they were glad that the waters were | quiet,*
and he brought them to their desired | haven.
Let them thank the LORD for his | steadfast love,*
for his wondrous works to the chil- | dren of men!
Let them extol him in the congregation of the | people,*
and praise him in the assembly of the | elders.
He turns rivers into a | desert,*
springs of water into | thirsty ground,
a fruitful land into a | salty waste,*
because of the evil of its in- | habitants.
He turns a desert into pools of | water,*
a parched land into springs of | water.
And there he lets the | hungry dwell,*
and they establish a city to | live in;
they sow fields and plant | vineyards*
and get a | fruitful yield.
By his blessing they multiply | greatly,*
and he does not let their livestock di- | minish.
When they are diminished and | brought low*
through oppression, evil, and | sorrow,
he pours contempt on | princes*
and makes them wander in | trackless wastes;
but he raises up the needy out of af- | fliction*
and makes their families | like flocks.
The upright see it | and are glad,*
and all wickedness | shuts its mouth.
Whoever is wise, let him attend | to these things;*
let them consider the steadfast love | of the LORD.

EPISTLE

2 Corinthians 6:1-13

Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. For he says, "In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you." Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. We put no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love; by truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; through honor and dishonor, through slander and praise. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing everything.

We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians; our heart is wide open. You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your own affections. In return (I speak as to children) widen your hearts also.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 4:35-41

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the 4th chapter.

On that day, when evening had come, [Jesus] said to them, “Let us go across to the other side.” And leaving the crowd, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. And other boats were with him. And a great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already filling. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. And they woke him and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” And he awoke and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. He said to them, “Why are you so afraid? Have you still no faith?” And they were filled with great fear and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even wind and sea obey him?”

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

G Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life ✝ of the world to come. Amen.

Gently used adult-sized glasses, child-sized glasses, over-the-counter reading glasses and non-prescription sunglasses will be accepted. Please search your homes to see what you can find to contribute to our collection basket in the narthex. All donations will be taken to the LWML Convention, Lexington, Kentucky, in June. Thank you for your continued support of Inasmuch projects.

St. John's Church-Worker Scholarship Corner

And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here I am! Send me" (Isaiah 6:8 ESV).

St. John's members can assist future church workers by contributing to the St. John's Church Worker Scholarship Fund. This year up to $1250 of contributions made will be matched by a generous benefactor. Applications for scholarships for the 2021-2022 academic year are in process and due to the committee by August 15, 2021. Scholarships will be awarded following that date. Available funds will be divided equally between those who apply. Anyone contributing to the St. John's Church Worker Scholarship Fund should write in the memo of their check prior to donating "Church Worker Scholarship Fund."

Presently St. John's has three enrolled members. Ryan Groh recently graduated from Concordia University-Seward as a pre-seminary student majoring in psychology. He will begin his seminary studies this fall at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana. Brian Payne, also a student at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, will venture to Cheyenne, Wyoming, to begin his vicarage. With him will be Keah Payne, enrolled at Concordia Theological University, Fort Wayne, to earn the Master of Arts in Diaconess Studies.

To qualify for an annual scholarship the member must presently be, or plan to be, a full-time student enrolled in Concordia University or Concordia Theological Seminary preparing for full-time church work. Those interested in receiving a scholarship must complete the Scholarship Committee's application, provide to the committee a copy of their letter of intent to enroll in a church worker program, and provide the committee a letter of acceptance from the school they will be attending. Members may apply annually by providing to the committee proof of continued enrollment in good standing at their campus.

Any questions may be directed to the following members of the committee: Al Cardwell, Anna Johnson, Karen Karner, and Debbie McBee.
